Jail Break '11

April 8, 9, & 10, 2011

Howdy from the Outlaws,

The Oakwood Outlaws cowboy action shooting club located in Oakwood, Texas will be hosting Jail Break 2011, our annual championship match. Sponsors are an integral part of this event and we would like to invite you to sponsor our Championship match, Jail Break '11.

What is the Oakwood Outlaws Club: The Oakwood Outlaws is a SASS-affiliated cowboy action shooting club located in Oakwood, Texas. SASS stands for Single Action Shooting Society and is the governing body that makes the rules for our matches. The Oakwood Outlaws Club was founded in August 2001 by Justa Hand (Raymond Shank) and TX Alline (Ruby Alline Shank). We are dedicated to reliving the history of the American West through cowboy action shooting. The club is designed to provide a safe and friendly environment for cowboy shooting enthusiasts of all ages including families. Strict shooting rules are enforced.

What is Cowboy Shooting?: Cowboy action shooting is the fastest growing shooting sport. Shooters dress in 1800-period duds and compete in scenarios. The scenarios are western-based scenes that require the shooters to role-play an old west character in a movie-type setting called a "stage". Some of the Outlaw stages are: a general store facade, saloon, log cabin, stable, windmill, and a blacksmith shop. The shooter is required to act out the scenario while engaging various targets with 1800-period firearms and 'live' ammo.

The Oakwood Outlaws sincerely hope you will consider sponsoring our match Jail Break '11. All agreements are due by March 23, 2011 in order to prepare your recognition.
