

July 2013 President's Letter

There is not much happening around here lately. We have been too busy doing other things. We have had a good share of rain, but it is now dry again, and dusty every place that I drive the tractor a lot. The grass is still green, and we have a new Calf. Hopefully two more will be along shortly. At least it looks that way. The forecast is for 100 degree days from now to the end of summer. Let's hope we get a reprieve from that forecast, at least for the August shoot.

I have heard some comments about my spelling in these newsletters. Perhaps the following will put it all into perspective.

Aoccdrnig to rscheearch at Cmabrigde Uinervtisy, it deson't mtttaer what order the lttters in a word are in; the only iprmoetnt factor is that the frist and lsat lttters be at the rghit pclae. The rset can be a total mses and you can still raed it wouthit a parbelm. This is bcuseae the human mind deos not raed ervdy lteter by istlef but the word as a wlohe. Petrty amzanig, huh?

Enuogh said. Here is some more food for thought.

If you can get arrested for hunting or fishing without a license, but not for being in the country illegally, you might live in a country founded by geniuses but run by idiots. If you have to show identification to board an airplane, cash a check, buy liquor or check out a library book, but not to vote who runs the government, you might live in a country founded by geniuses but run by idiots. If the government wants to ban stable, low-abiding citizens from owning gun magazines with more than ten rounds, but gives 20

F-16 fighter jets to new Muslim leaders in Egypt, you might live in a country founded by geniuses but run by idiots. If 80 year old women can be strip searched by the TSA but a woman in a hijab is only subject to having her neck and head searched, you might live in a country founded by geniuses but run by idiots. If your government believes that the best way to eradicate trillions of dollars of debt is to spend trillions more, you might live in a country founded by geniuses but run by idiots. If a 17 year old boy can be thrown out of school for saying his teacher is "cute", but hosting a sexual exploration or diversity class in grade school is perfectly acceptable, you might live in a country founded by geniuses but run by idiots. If hard work and success are met with higher taxes and more government intrusion, while not working is rewarded with EBT cards, WIC checks, Medicaid, subsidized housing and free cell phones, you might live in a country founded by geniuses but run by idiots.

I don't think our politicians "get it".

Be safe and shoot straight.

Justa Hand, President
