Howdy Pilgrims from the Outlaws in Oakwood! April was a great shoot. It was Goldie Locks weather, not too cold, not too hot, Just Right! Burr Bunn did some work on the pistol targets at the Townhall and if it works out, he will work on all the pistol targets. Burr Bunn also completed the "Potty Plank" connecting the porches of the Scoring Building and the Bathrooms together. In addition, He removed some dead trees and did some repairs on the Mercantile and Justa Kitchen. The nasty weather recently prevented much work the last couple weeks, but I'd say he needed a break anyway.

Saturday we had a brand new shooter join us from Bossier City, Louisiana. Chips Lareaux is brand new to SASS and the newest member of the Oakwood Outlaws. It being his first ever Cowboy Action Shooting match, he was able to take advantage of our Greenhorn Category (First five CAS matches). He did pretty well for a Greenhorn.

As promised, the side match was a bit more challenging this month and shooting clean was the goal with scoring bonuses the first tie breaker and raw time the second. Both the horse's rear and the pipe were included as well as two shotgun knockdowns, but no make ups allowed. Jake Cutter won the side match on Saturday, but it came down to his blazing 17.00 time as he and Osage Mike both had only one miss and scored two bonuses. We awarded Osage a consolation prize as he was clean until his very last shot, which left a shotgun target standing! Osage took home the prize on Sunday, shooting the side match clean and scoring all three bonuses. Monday, Shadow Doc won the side match which again came down to the second tie breaker as Blackfoot Drifter also shoot clean with two bonuses, but Shadow Doc was faster. Also as promised, the side match prizes this month were sharp. A nice sharp knife in fact. They were pretty sharp looking as well!

Burr Bunn shot clean on Saturday without the use of the bonus. On Sunday, Burr Bunn, Lonesome Lefty and Falling Block all had a clean match, but Lefty did not need a bonus to do it. Monday, Shadow Doc scored a clean match only needing one bonus to pull it off. Since Monday was April 15th, tax day, the scenarios and lines on Monday were revenue related. Beware the Ides of April and the Tax Man. The weather was perfect all weekend. It was warm and a bit muggy, but stayed overcast through out the morning, so it did not get too hot and the breeze was refreshing. It was a small turn out, but great shooting!

In May, we will draw for the derringer on Saturday and Sunday all ladies shoot free!

Happy Spring from the Oakwood Outlaws. We hope to see you in May for Mother's Day weekend. I didn't put the bullet in the furnace and stop talking about my Mother!
