Volume 23, Issue 12

Thank-you shooters for coming out to our December Christmas shoot. Cowboy Christmas music was featured at the range and all shooters received a Christmas swag bag.

We shot our first ever Christmas Star side match. Forest Shadow took 1st place and won a pre-lit Christmas tree. In the cowboy spirit, Forest Shadow gifted the tree to Ms. Laurie Darlin' who really wanted to win it. Congratulations shooters!

Merry Christmas from the Outlaws! December of course, Christmas was the theme for the shoot and our Christmas Side Match. We pulled out the stars and bell targets to set up our Christmas Side Match. The horse target became Dominic the Christmas Donkey for the side match! I won the side match shooting clean and scoring the Donkey Bonus! However, I knew Laurie Darlin' really wanted that Christmas Tree (donated by Blue Bonnet Belle), so I gifted it to her. So, Merry Christmas Laurie Darlin'! We shot it again for fun on Sunday and Monday and Falling Block and Tommy Reb took the honors on those two days. Belle had a Christmas Headband for Falling Block on Saturday and he was a good sport modeling it for some pics!

The weather was great for cowboy shootin'! The weather on Saturday was wonderful and it was great to see Lefty and Weezee. Texas Alline served up some ham, sausage and beans with corn bread for lunch and Justa Hand provided some of his sourdough bread. We shot the Town Center stage with the moving rifle target this month and it was a hit, actually ten of them! We also allowed a limited number of rifle reloads to shoot at a special target to eliminate misses for folks to earn a clean match.

Sunday it was a bit chilly first thing in the morning, but it warmed up quickly. I took my coat off before we started shootin' and did not need it. A few folks needed theirs for the first couple stages. It was a small posse, but what a fun day. Again we shot the Town Center and folks could eliminate a few misses. Monday was pretty much the same, but a bit chillier. The hot lunch was much appreciated, especially on Monday.

If the weather in January is as good, I would not complain. I am thinking winter cowboy for scenarios and the side match. I'll have to task Burr Bunn with figuring out some creative targets. We will figure another way to eliminate a miss or a few. On Monday, Wild Bunch will be the featured category, then Teddy Roosevelt in February and March will be Doughboy.

Remember, February we are going to do a special shoot that is going to involve a special shooting category and a gun give away! More info coming soon on that. For now, Merry Christmas and a Very Happy New Year from the Oakwood Outlaws!
