Howdy pards, the weather this month was perfect shooting weather. It was a bit chillish in the early morning. Texas Alline served hot home made chicken soup for the shooters after the match on Saturday and Sunday. Who said there is no such thing as a free lunch. Monday was the coldest morning, so we actually had a campfire going and of course that day Just Hand served ice cream sundaes (???) with TX Alline's home made toppings!

Though we were back to regular cowboy dress for October, we still got a bit creative. Saturday was the annular eclipse called a ring of fire, so the stories and lines were based on that. The horses ars target made an appearance again giving folks a chance to eliminate two misses. After the match we had a little side match. Five pistol and five rifle shots at the derriere and the one that had the most center hits won a telescope! Tommy Reb took home the prize even shooting duelist style. Congrats Reb and glad your family liked the telescope.

Sunday it was Octoberfest themed stages and another chance to eliminate a miss or two. Monday Halloween took the stages and lines and wild bunch was the featured category. There were four chances at the ars to eliminate misses. We had three clean matches on Saturday, four on Sunday and two on Monday, both wild bunch, and some of those did not need the ars elimination of misses, so they earned five second bonuses.

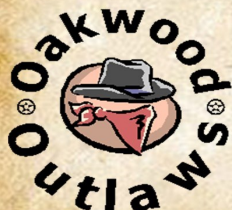

Jake Cutter was back after his birthday present, how would you like to get a pace maker for your birthday! It was great that he was able to get back on the horse so quickly. He and Laurie had some friends join them for the weekend, so he had an audience for his big return to the top spot. Their friends were fun folks and we hope they join us again, perhaps to put some lead on steel! Speaking of old friends, Osage Mike joined us on Monday and renewed his membership. He moved closer to Oakwood, so we hope to shoot with him more often.

Next month, Saturday is Veterans Day, so veterans shoot free that day. November is Thanksgiving, so figure that will play into the scenarios. Teddy Rosevelt will be featured on Monday. I am sure the ars or some other special target will make an appearance on a stage or in a side match. Who doesn't like fun and special awards?!!! Friday is Marine Corps Birthday, so we will celebrate that at our Friday Night Social. Join us next month for Cowboy Shooting Oakwood style! Until then, keep your powder dry from the Outlaws!
